

An Everlasting Portion

by Thomas Brooks

Having God as a portion provides a Christian with a sure and lasting source of comfort, strength, and happiness.

Scripture: Psalm 73:26, Lamentations 3:24, Matthew 6:19, Philippians 4:19, Hebrews 13:5

Topics: "God as Our Portion", "True Happiness in God"

Description

Thomas Brooks emphasizes that God is the ultimate and everlasting portion for a Christian, highlighting that while one may lose everything else in life, they can never lose their relationship with God. He asserts that true happiness and security come from having God as one's portion, and that material wealth or status cannot provide lasting fulfillment. Brooks encourages believers to ensure that God is their portion, as this is the only source of true joy and hope in life.

Transcript

"The Lord is my portion, says my soul; therefore

I will hope in Him." Lamentations 3:24

A Christian may be stripped of anything but his God;

he may be stripped of his estate, his friends, his relations,

his liberty, his life--but he can never be stripped of his God!

As God is a portion that none can give to a Christian but God himself; so God is a portion that none can take from a Christian but God himself! Therefore, as ever you would have a sure portion, an abiding portion, a lasting portion,

yes, an everlasting portion, make sure of God for your portion!

Nothing can make that man miserable, who has God for his portion; nor can anything make that man happy, who lacks God for his portion.

The more rich--the more wretched;

the more great--the more graceless;

the more honorable--the more miserable

that man will be, who has not God for his portion.
