

God Eyes Them

by Thomas Brooks

God sees and records our private desires, and will one day answer them with glorious returns.

Scripture: Psalm 34:17, Psalm 56:8, Psalm 139:1-4, Isaiah 65:24, Jeremiah 29:12-13, Matthew 6:6, Romans 8:26, Hebrews 4:13, 1 Peter 5:7, Revelation 5:8

Topics: "God's Awareness", "Prayer and Supplication"

Description

Thomas Brooks emphasizes that despite the confusion and brokenness of our private desires and requests, God is always aware of them. He records our innermost groanings, which may be hidden from others, and assures us that they are noted in heaven. Ultimately, God will respond to these heartfelt petitions with glorious answers, reminding us of His attentive and loving nature.

Transcript

Though our private desires are ever so confused, though our private requests are ever so broken, and though our private groanings are ever so hidden from men, yet God eyes them, records them, and puts them upon the file of heaven, and will one day crown them with glorious answers and returns.
