

He Has No Memory

by Thomas Brooks

The sermon emphasizes God's promise to forget the sins of the righteous, highlighting His mercy and grace.

Scripture: Isaiah 43:25, Jeremiah 31:34, Hebrews 8:12, Hebrews 10:17

Topics: "God's Mercy", "Forgiveness"

Description

Thomas Brooks emphasizes God's incredible mercy and forgiveness, illustrating that while He remembers the sins of the wicked, He chooses to forget the sins of the righteous. This profound grace is highlighted through various scriptures, affirming that God will not hold our iniquities against us. The sermon reassures believers of their standing before God, free from the burden of past sins, as He offers a fresh start and a clean slate.

Transcript

"I will not remember your sins." Isaiah 43:25

"I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more." Jeremiah 31:34.

"I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more." Hebrews 8:12.

"Their sins and iniquities will I remember no more."
Hebrews 10:17.

Though God has an iron memory to remember the sins of the wicked; yet He has no memory to remember the sins of the righteous.
