

I Am Undone

by Thomas Brooks

Seeing God's glory reveals our true spiritual state, making us aware of our emptiness, sinfulness, and nothingness.

Scripture: Job 42:5-6, Psalm 51:5, Isaiah 6:5, Isaiah 57:15, Luke 5:8, Romans 3:23, 2 Corinthians 12:9, Ephesians 2:8-9, Philippians 3:8, 1 John 1:8-9

Topics: "Humility", "Vision of God"

Description

Thomas Brooks preaches on Isaiah's profound realization of his own unworthiness upon encountering the glory of the Lord, expressing the sentiment 'I am undone.' This revelation highlights the contrast between God's holiness and human sinfulness, leading to a deep awareness of our own emptiness and need for redemption. Brooks emphasizes that a true vision of God brings clarity to our spiritual condition, prompting a response of humility and repentance.

Transcript

Isaiah sees the glory of the Lord in a vision, and this makes him cry out, "Woe is me, for I am undone . . . for my eyes have seen the King, the Lord Almighty!" Isaiah 6:5

"I am undone." The Hebrew is, "I am cut off," I am a forlorn man! Why? "For I have seen the King, the Lord Almighty!" The clearest sight and vision of God does always give a man the fullest sight of his own emptiness, sinfulness, and nothingness!
