

I Will Be With Him in Trouble

by Thomas Brooks

The precious presence of God with us brings our greatest happiness, honor, profit, joy, and safety, making even the heaviest afflictions light and bearable.

Scripture: Psalm 23:4, Psalm 55:22, Psalm 91:15, Isaiah 41:10, Matthew 28:20, John 14:27, Romans 8:28, 2 Corinthians 12:9, Philippians 4:6-7, Hebrews 13:5

Topics: "God's Presence", "Comfort in Affliction"

Description

Thomas Brooks emphasizes the profound comfort and strength found in the presence of God during times of trouble, as highlighted in Psalms 91:15. He explains that God's presence transforms our afflictions, making them lighter and more bearable, and provides us with unparalleled joy, safety, and honor. Brooks encourages believers to rely on God's everlasting arms, which support and protect us through life's burdens. The sermon reassures that calling upon God leads to His faithful response and presence in our struggles.

Transcript

"He will call upon me, and I will answer him;

I will be with him in trouble." Psalm 91:15

Oh, the precious presence of God with a man, will sweeten every fiery dispensation, and take off much of the bitterness and dreadfulness of it.

In the gracious presence of God with us lies,

our greatest happiness,

our greatest honor,

our greatest profit and advantage,

our greatest joy and delight,

our greatest safety and security.

The gracious presence of God with us, will make our heavy afflictions light,

our long afflictions short,

our bitter afflictions sweet.

He who has the presence of God with his spirit, can bear a burden without a burden. What burden can sink that man, who has everlasting arms under him,

and over him, and round about him?

"Cast your cares on the Lord and He will sustain you;

He will never let the righteous fall." Psalm 55:22
