

Never Will I Leave You

by Thomas Brooks

God's promise to never leave or forsake us provides us with the confidence to rest in His presence and provision in times of need.

Scripture: Psalm 23:4, Isaiah 41:10, Matthew 6:25, Philippians 4:19, Hebrews 10:34, Hebrews 13:5

Topics: "God's Promises", "Contentment in Trials"

Description

Thomas Brooks emphasizes the profound promise of God in Hebrews 13:5, reminding believers that despite their circumstances, including loss and hardship, they can find contentment in God's unwavering presence. He reassures that God's promise to never leave or forsake us encompasses all aspects of life, providing necessary support and assistance in times of need. Brooks encourages Christians to adjust their mindset to align with their current means, trusting that God will supply all their needs and deliver them from distress. The sermon highlights the assurance of God's help in overcoming challenges and suffering, reinforcing the importance of faith and reliance on God's promises.

Transcript

"Keep your lives free from the love of money and be content with what you have, because God has said

--Never will I leave you; never will I forsake you."

Hebrews 13:5

These Hebrew Christians had been plundered of all they had (Hebrews 10:34). Though they had nothing they must be content. If men cannot bring their means to their minds, let them bring their minds to their means;

a little will serve our turn until we get to heaven, until we come to our Father's house.

"Never will I leave you." This promise includes all times, all places, all states, all needs, all dangers, all distresses, all necessities, all calamities, all miseries, which can befall us in this world.

These two phrases, "God's not leaving, God's not forsaking," imply all needful assistance.

I will supply all your needs,

I will heal all your diseases,

I will secure you against all sorts of dangers,

I will ease you of all your pains,

I will free you of all your oppressors,

I will break all your bonds,

I will bring you out of prison,

I will vanquish all your enemies,

I will knock off all your chains, and I will make you triumph over all your sufferings!

God being with us, and for us, and on our side, we may boldly, safely, and confidently, rest upon it--that He will freely, readily, graciously, give all needful help, assistance, and support--when we are in the greatest troubles, deepest distresses, and most deadly dangers.

Source: <https://sermonindex.net/speakers/thomas-brooks/never-will-i-leave-you/>

Grow in Your Walk with Christ

Listen and read messages that will stir your heart for Christ and point you to deeper repentance and devotion.

- 50,000+ Sermons from speakers past and present
- 3,900+ Classic Christian Books freely readable online
- 1,200+ Bible Translations and Commentaries
- Over 450k forum posts — Join our vibrant online Christian forum

www.sermonindex.net