

Preach Forth the Virtues of Christ

by Thomas Brooks

As God's chosen people, we are called to demonstrate the virtues of Christ and show others the goodness of God.

Scripture: Matthew 5:16, Ephesians 5:8, 1 Peter 2:9

Topics: "Living Out Faith", "Christian Identity"

Description

Thomas Brooks emphasizes that Christians, as a chosen people and a holy nation, are called to proclaim the virtues of Christ by living out His goodness in their lives. He asserts that true transformation occurs when God's divine light illuminates the soul, enabling believers to reflect Christ's virtues authentically. Without this divine light, even the most knowledgeable individual remains spiritually lost. The sermon encourages believers to embrace their identity in Christ and to actively demonstrate His goodness to the world.

Transcript

"For you are a chosen people. You are a kingdom of priests, God's holy nation, His very own possession. This is so you can show others the goodness (or virtues) of God, for He called you out of the darkness into His wonderful light." 1 Peter 2:9

When God causes His divine light, His marvelous light, to shine in upon the soul, then a Christian will preach forth the virtues of Christ in an imitable practice; and until then a man, under all other knowledge, will remain an incarnate devil.
