

Rather Be Satan's Bond-Slaves

by Thomas Brooks

---

The sermon warns of the consequences of choosing to be Satan's bond-slaves rather than Christ's free men.

Scripture: Isaiah 43:10-44, John 8:34, Romans 6:16, Galatians 5:1, Ephesians 2:1-3, 2 Timothy 2:20-21, 1 Peter 2:9, Revelation 21:8

Topics: "Slavery to Sin", "Choice of Holiness"

Description

Thomas Brooks emphasizes the tragic choice of many who prefer to remain in their sinful ways, choosing to be slaves to Satan rather than embracing the freedom found in Christ. He warns of the dire consequences for those who would rather be vessels of wrath than vessels of honor, highlighting the eternal unhappiness that comes from rejecting holiness. Brooks calls for a reflection on the state of one's soul and the importance of choosing a path that leads to glory rather than destruction.

Transcript

Most shall continue obstinate and impenitent in their ungodly courses and practices, as men resolved rather to go to hell than to heaven, and to be forever unhappy rather than they will be holy, Isaiah 43:10, 12, and 44:8. Woe, woe to them forever, who had rather be Satan's bond-slaves than Christ's free-men, that had rather be "vessels of wrath" than vessels of honor, and that had rather be firebrands of hell than glorious saints in heaven.
