

The Diamond in That Ring!

by Thomas Brooks

The sermon emphasizes the significance of the whole Scripture as a love-letter from the Lord Christ, highlighting the importance of seeking and embracing Christ as the treasure in the field and the diamond in the ring of gold.

Scripture: Matthew 13:44, John 5:39, Ephesians 3:17

Topics: "The Love of Christ", "The Centrality of Scripture"

Description

Thomas Brooks emphasizes that the entire Scripture serves as a profound love letter from Christ to His followers, filled with expressions of His love, heart, kindness, grace, and glory. He illustrates that the Word of God is like a field where Christ is the hidden treasure, and a golden ring where Christ is the precious diamond. This message encourages believers to embrace and conform to the teachings of Scripture, recognizing the centrality of Christ in all aspects of their faith.

Transcript

The whole Scripture is but one entire love-letter, all written in golden letters, dispatched from the Lord Christ to His beloved spouse on earth. In it, there is so much to be read of . . .
the love of Christ,
the heart of Christ,
the kindness of Christ,
the grace of Christ, and
the glory of Christ,
that a holy heart cannot but love, and embrace,
and endeavor to conform to every line.

The whole word of God is a field--and Christ

is the treasure which is hidden in that field!

The whole word of God is a ring of gold-- and Christ is the diamond in that ring!

"The Scriptures point to Me!" John 5:39
