

The Golden Link of Love!

by Thomas Brooks

The more Christ has suffered for us, the more dear Christ should be unto us, and the more we should cherish His love.

Scripture: Isaiah 53:5, Matthew 13:46, John 3:16, Romans 5:8, Ephesians 2:8-9, Philippians 3:8, Colossians 1:13-14, 1 Peter 2:24, 1 John 4:19, Revelation 1:5

Topics: "Love Of Christ", "Sacrifice"

Description

Thomas Brooks emphasizes that the profound love of Christ, demonstrated through His suffering on the cross, should inspire a deep and abiding love in our hearts for Him. He urges believers to cherish Christ as their most precious possession, recognizing that His bitter sufferings lead to the sweetness of His love. Brooks encourages us to keep a suffering Christ close to our hearts, as He is the source of our salvation and the ultimate treasure we should value above all else.

Transcript

It was the golden link of love that fastened Christ to the cross!
Certainly the more Christ has suffered for us,
the more dear Christ should be unto us. The more bitter His sufferings have been for us,
the more sweet His love should be to us, and the more eminent should be our love to Him.
Oh, let a suffering Christ lie nearest your hearts;
let Him be your manna, your tree of life, your morning star. It is better to part with all than with this pearl of great price.

Christ is that golden pipe through which the golden oil of salvation runs.
