

The Sparkling Diamond in the Ring of Glory

by Thomas Brooks

The holiness of God is the central focus of the seraphim's worship, revealing His superlative eminency, glory, and excellency.

Scripture: Exodus 15:11, Leviticus 11:44, Psalm 30:4, Psalm 96:9, Isaiah 6:3, Matthew 5:48, Hebrews 12:14, 1 Peter 1:16, 1 John 1:5, Revelation 4:8

Topics: "Holiness Of God", "Worship"

Description

Thomas Brooks emphasizes the profound impact of God's holiness, illustrating how the seraphim's thrice-repeated declaration, 'Holy, holy, holy,' reflects both the supreme excellence of God's holiness and their deep admiration for it. He likens God's holiness to a sparkling diamond set in the ring of glory, highlighting its unmatched beauty and significance. The sermon calls believers to recognize and be captivated by the holiness of God, which should inspire a deeper reverence and worship.

Transcript

"And they were calling to one another: Holy, holy, holy is the Lord Almighty! The whole earth is full of His glory." Isaiah 6:3

The more holy any are, the more deeply are they affected and captivated with the holiness of God.

The holy seraphim, by trebling the acclamation of His holiness, "Holy, holy, holy," denote not only the superlative eminency, glory, and excellency of God's holiness--but also they reveal how greatly, how abundantly they are affected and captivated with the holiness of God. To the holy angels, the holiness of God is the sparkling diamond in the ring of glory!
