

Who Sees Us? Who Will Know?

by Thomas Brooks

Atheism is a heart condition that denies God's existence, whether in opinion, affection, or practice, and leads to a life of sin and separation from God.

Scripture: Psalm 10:11, Psalm 14:1, Psalm 73:11, Psalm 94:7, Isaiah 29:15

Topics: "Atheism", "Idolatry"

Description

Thomas Brooks addresses the prevalence of atheism in the hearts of sinners, illustrating how various forms of idolatry replace God in their lives, such as wealth, pleasure, and ambition. He emphasizes that many live as if God does not see their actions, leading to a false sense of security in their sins. Brooks warns that this denial of God's omniscience and omnipotence is a grave blasphemy, as it leads individuals to act freely in secret, believing they can escape divine judgment. He concludes with a stark reminder that while many may claim atheism on earth, none will do so in hell, where the reality of God's presence is undeniable.

Transcript

Atheism reigns in the hearts and lives of sinners.

The covetous make their gold their god.

The drunkard and glutton make their bellies their god.

The ambitious make honors their god.

The voluptuous make pleasures their god.

The religionists make pious duties their god.

The moral make virtue their god.

"The fool says in his heart--There is no God!"

Psalm 14:1

Atheism denies God either:

in opinion--saying there is no God; or in affection--wishing there were no God; or in practice--living as if there were no God.

What abundance of atheists there are in the land!

"He says to himself--God has forgotten; He covers
His face and never sees." Psalm 10:11

"They say--How can God know? Does the Most High have knowledge?" Psalm 73:11

"They say--The Lord does not see; the God of Jacob pays no heed." Psalm 94:7

What horrid blasphemy, what gross atheism is here!

How do these atheists ungod the great God! How do they deny His omnipotence and omniscience! What an idol-god do they make the great God to be!

There are many who sin freely in secret, who can be drunk and filthy in the dark, when the eye of man is not upon them. Certainly those men's hearts are very atheistic, who dare do that in the sight of God
--which they tremble to do before the eyes of men!

How many are there who flatter themselves in their sins, and conclude that surely the bitterness of hell and wrath is past, and that they are in a fair way for heaven--when every step they take is towards the bottomless pit, and divine vengeance hangs over their heads, ready every moment to fall upon them!

"On earth are atheists many,
In hell there are not any."

"Woe to those who go to great depths to hide their plans from the Lord, who do their work in darkness and think--Who sees us? Who will know?"

Isaiah 29:15

Source: <https://sermonindex.net/speakers/thomas-brooks/who-sees-us-who-will-know/>

Grow in Your Walk with Christ

Listen and read messages that will stir your heart for Christ and point you to deeper repentance and devotion.

- 50,000+ Sermons from speakers past and present
- 3,900+ Classic Christian Books freely readable online
- 1,200+ Bible Translations and Commentaries
- Over 450k forum posts — Join our vibrant online Christian forum

www.sermonindex.net