

Playing Games With God With Your False Profession

by Tim Conway

Don't toy with false professions, as it can lead to eternal consequences; instead, seek God with a repentant heart and trust in the Lord Jesus Christ for salvation.

Duration: 2:02

Scripture: Isaiah 55:6-7, Matthew 7:21-23, John 6:37, Romans 10:9-10, Hebrews 9:27-28

Topics: "False Profession", "Genuine Faith"

Description

This sermon emphasizes the danger of false professions and the importance of genuine faith in Christ for salvation. It warns against playing games with one's faith or trying to deceive others in the church. The urgency of coming clean before God and seeking His salvation is highlighted, as well as the assurance that God will not reject those who sincerely call upon Him for salvation.

Transcript

Don't toy with false professions. You don't want to be fake anymore! Your eternal soul and body are at stake. Don't play a game just to be received by Christians.

Don't play a game just to be able to join a church. If you're not saved, come clean and flee to Christ. Folks, if you're wrong, you're wrong, and it's going to cost you dearly.

But God in love, right now, right now, if you cry to Him, He promises, He's put His own word at stake. If you call, if you seek Him, you'll find Him. If you call upon Him, He'll save you.

If you trust in the Lord Jesus Christ, there's salvation to be had. If you cry now, Him that comes to me, I will in no wise cast out. But once death seizes you, it's done.
