

(Clip) Sin Did Not Kill Jesus Christ

by Tim Conway

This sermon emphasizes the profound love of God the Father, highlighting how He willingly sacrificed His own Son, Jesus Christ, for the sake of all humanity. It delves into the concept that sin did not kill Jesus, but rather it was the Father's plan and act of love to offer His Son for the redemption of all. The message underscores the deep love and intentional sacrifice of God for the salvation of mankind, as seen in the predeterminate counsel of God to strike and crush the shepherd, Jesus, out of love for us all.

Duration: 2:01

Scripture: John 3:16, Ephesians 4:6, Isaiah 53:6, Acts 2:23, 2 Corinthians 5:21

Topics: "God's Sacrificial Love", "Redemption through Christ"

Transcript

In all of Scripture, one little word. God so loved. It's like we're just kind of kept honestly on the outside.

What is that? You need to remember this when you think about the Father's love. Sin did not kill Jesus Christ. Your Father killed Jesus Christ.

He, Scripture says, who did not spare His own Son. Why? One God and Father of all. Why didn't He spare Him? He gave Him up.

What does it say? For us all. It's the same. For us all.

Or you think of what even Isaiah said in the Old Testament. The Lord laid on Him the iniquity of us all. The Father Himself loves you.

He says, I will strike the shepherd. I will crush him. It was the predeterminate counsel of God.

God did this. God gave His Son. For our sake, He made Him to be sin.

For our sake, us all. The Father Himself loves you. This excerpt is taken from the full sermon One God and Father.
