Description

This sermon emphasizes God's desire for us to truly know Him, highlighting His loving kindness and goodness. It explores how God leads His people, sometimes into challenging situations like the wilderness or temptations, to work in us in ways that cannot be achieved otherwise.

Transcript

God wants us to know him. He loves to get us to know him in his loving kindness. For God is so kind and so good.

No wonder Moses prayed, show me now thy way that I may know thee. Now today we are preoccupied now with the way of the Lord in the wilderness. Now this morning we saw God leading his people by the cloud, the glory of God into the wilderness.

You know often we speak or think of God's leadings, but God leads into all sorts of things. He let the Spirit, let the Lord into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. And there are times where God leads us into situations not pleasant.

That will do a work in us which cannot be done in any other way.
