

Our Aim

by W.R. Inge

The sermon emphasizes the immense joy and blessedness of seeing God clearly and experiencing the best and highest good, which is God Himself.

Scripture: Psalm 16:11, Psalm 27:4, Isaiah 33:17, 1 Corinthians 2:9, Revelation 22:4

Topics: "Eternal Security", "Gods Goodness"

Description

W.R. Inge emphasizes the incomparable joy and blessedness awaiting those who will behold the glorious face of God without hindrance, experiencing the fullness of His goodness and beauty. In God, they will find ultimate pleasure, power, joy, and beauty, possessing all that is good and desirable with eternal security and joy, free from the fear of ever being separated from Him.

Transcript

THINK, and think earnestly, how great, how unutterable will be the joy and blessedness, the glory and honour of those who shall see clearly and without veil the gladsome and beautiful face of God, how they will enjoy the best and highest good, which is God Himself. For in Him is included all pleasure, might, joy, and all beauty, so that the blessed in God will possess everything that is good and desirable, with everlasting joy and security, without fear lest they should ever be parted from Him.
