

A Life of Constant Triumph

by Zac Poonen

Zac Poonen emphasizes that God's will for believers is to live a life of constant victory through faith in His Word.

Scripture: Mark 10:15, Romans 8:37, Romans 10:17, 2 Corinthians 2:14, Hebrews 11:6, 1 John 2:1

Topics: "Victorious Living", "Childlike Faith"

Description

Zac Poonen preaches on God's will for constant victory in our lives, emphasizing the Scriptures that declare triumph in Christ and overwhelming conquest through Him. Despite these clear teachings, many believers struggle to accept that God desires them to live victoriously. Poonen highlights the importance of childlike faith in believing the Word of God as it is written, rather than relying on human reasoning which can lead to doubt and unbelief. He stresses that faith is essential for entering into a life of victory, and that everything in the Christian walk hinges on this unwavering trust in God's revealed truth.

Transcript

God's will for our lives is CONSTANT VICTORY. This is clearly taught in a number of Scriptures.

Consider just a few....

"Thanks be to God Who ALWAYS leads us in His triumph in Christ" (2 Cor.2:14).

"In ALL THESE THINGS we overwhelmingly conquer through Him Who loves us" (Rom.8:37).

"I am writing these things to you that YOU MAY NOT SIN" (1 Jn.2:1).

In spite of these and other Scriptures, it is still a difficult task to convince many believers that God wants them to live victorious lives.

If we take Scripture just as it is written and believe it simply, as a little child, then this message will come through to us clearly. But if we rely on our reason, we may find many convincing arguments why such a life is not possible in this evil world. Many unbelieving believers will then add their testimony to what our reason tells us. And then we will convince ourselves that a victorious life is impossible in this world.

Unless we are convinced first of all that God wants us to live in continuous victory, we will never be able to have faith for such a life. And without faith, it is impossible to enter the victorious life. Everything in the Christian life is utterly dependent on faith. And faith is based on the revelation that God has given us in His Word.

Even if you have lived in defeat for many years, it makes no difference. If only you can see this truth of a life of constant victory clearly in God's Word, it would be the first step towards a victorious life.
