

Correcting Others In The Body of Christ

by Zac Poonen

This sermon emphasizes the concept of handing over a backslidden believer to Satan, not for eternal damnation but for the salvation of their soul. It explores the idea of allowing temporary suffering in the flesh to lead to repentance and ultimately the saving of the individual's spirit in the day of the Lord, Jesus.

Scripture: 1 Corinthians 5:5, Job 2:6, 2 Corinthians 2:11, 1 Peter 5:8, James 4:7

Topics: "Restoration through Discipline", "The Purpose of Suffering"

Description

This sermon emphasizes the concept of handing over a backslidden believer to Satan, not for eternal damnation but for the salvation of their soul. It explores the idea of allowing temporary suffering in the flesh to lead to repentance and ultimately the saving of the individual's spirit in the day of the Lord, Jesus.

Transcript

To hand over that person to Satan not to send him to hell. No, no, no, no So that his spirit may be saved in the day of the lord. Jesus.

I want him to go to heaven But he can't go to heaven in his present condition He has to be broken so thoroughly that he repents So paul loved him And out of great love for him to save his soul Eternally he says i'm going to hand him over satan in jesus name. I'm handing over this Backslidden believer to you Do what you like with him You won't kill him just like god did not allow satan to kill joe So that the destruction of his flesh means so that he suffers in some way in his body Satan like you made job suffer in his body make this guy suffer in his body so that he repents And so that his spirit can be saved in the day of the lord. Jesus
