Transcript

Paul could not heal himself of his own sickness, that's not important, but he could build a church. See, so I see that building the church is more important than physical healing or anything else. And then they could hear the voice of the Spirit saying what to do and where to go.

It's a wonderful thing to be led by God like that. Because I believe that for every one of you, dear brothers and sisters, God's made a plan for your life. He made it long before you were born.

And the most useful life you can live on earth is one where you fulfill that plan.
