Transcript

One who will say to me with all of his heart, I will never offer to my God that which costs me nothing, whether in terms of time or any other type of sacrifice we make, and I'm very glad that I learned it at a very young age. It's very easy to ease our conscience by saying, I prayed, I read my Bible today, I've done this, I've done what is necessary for my Christian life for today. It's very different when we have the principle of David who says, I will never offer to God that which costs me nothing.
