

If You Love Jesus You Will Take His Commands Seriously

by Zac Poonen

This sermon emphasizes the importance of taking God's commandments seriously and not just speaking about loving Jesus without genuine commitment. It challenges believers to be honest about their love for Christ and to actively fight against sin, even if the process of overcoming it takes time, as a true reflection of their love for Jesus.

Scripture: John 14:15, 1 John 2:4, Luke 6:46, James 1:22, 1 John 5:3

Topics: "Commitment to Christ", "Overcoming Sin"

Description

This sermon emphasizes the importance of taking God's commandments seriously and not just speaking about loving Jesus without genuine commitment. It challenges believers to be honest about their love for Christ and to actively fight against sin, even if the process of overcoming it takes time, as a true reflection of their love for Jesus.

Transcript

You won't keep my commandments. That's the reason you don't keep my commandments. Any commandment that you have heard in this church from the Bible or that you've read in the Bible yourself, which you don't take seriously to keep it.

Today, you heard the reason. All your talk about loving Jesus Christ is absolute nonsense. It's bogus.

It's a lie. Don't ever say that again, that you love Jesus. Speak the truth and say, I do not love Jesus Christ.

That's why, not that's why I fall into anger or fall into lust. That's why I don't take those things seriously and fight against it. It may take you one year, 10 years to overcome it, but if you're fighting it every day, it shows that you love Jesus Christ.
