Transcript

I've learned to take every word of God seriously, and that's what's made a difference in my life. And so, verse 31, if we judge ourselves rightly, we will not be judged in the way mentioned in verse 30. God will not judge us.

There's only one condition for God not to judge us. We judge ourselves rightly. And I've taken that verse for many years to apply to the final judgment when we stand before the Lord in the last day as well.

I don't want to be judged in that day. I'll tell you honestly. When the Lord goes through the record of my life, in the final day when I stand before him, I want him to say, it's all clear.
