

The Danger Of Our Hearts Being Lifted Up In Pride

by Zac Poonen

This sermon delves into the root of sin, highlighting how unrighteousness was found due to pride in one's heart. The downfall began when beauty and wisdom led to a sense of self-importance, corrupting the gifts bestowed by God. Sin, as revealed in verse 17, originates internally from the heart's pride in God-given attributes.

Scripture: Ezekiel 28:15, Ezekiel 28:17, Proverbs 4:23, Mark 7:21, James 4:6

Topics: "Pride", "The Root of Sin"

Transcript

15. Unrighteousness was found in you. Here's where the root of sin comes in.

It was perfect until that day. And it says here in verse 17 what the root was. Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty, because of your wisdom.

So there you have the root of sin. It's not external. Sin is not in anything external.

It's in the heart. And it comes from the heart becoming proud because of something God has given us. God had given him wisdom.

God says you corrupted your wisdom, it says in verse 17. Beauty, see the two things mentioned in verse 17. Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty and your wisdom and your splendor.
