

The End of Time

by Zac Poonen

The sermon describes the end of time and the beginning of eternity, where redeemed people will live in a perfect heaven and earth, free from sin and lusts.

Scripture: Revelation 21:1

Topics: "Eternity", "New Heaven and Earth"

Description

Zac Poonen preaches about the end of time, emphasizing the transition from time to eternity where redeemed individuals will enter the new heaven and new earth, as depicted in Revelation 21. He highlights the removal of Satan and unbelievers from this perfect existence, where sin and fleshly desires will no longer exist. The sermon conveys a vision of a glorious universe filled with those who have joyfully chosen to follow God's will for eternity.

Transcript

Then time will cease and eternity will begin. Redeemed men and women will enter into the new heaven and the new earth and the bride of Christ will then shine forth in all her glory (as described in Revelation 21).

Satan and all unbelievers will have been removed from that perfect heaven and earth. In that glorious new universe, sin will never raise its ugly head any more and there won't be any lusts in our flesh. Heaven will be filled with people who have joyfully chosen the will of God for all eternity.
