

(The Full Gospel) 26. Proving God's Perfect Will

by Zac Poonen

To prove God's perfect will, ask yourself twelve questions and seek guidance from Scripture and wiser brothers.

Scripture: 1 John 3:21

Topics: "Gods Will", "Spiritual Guidance"

Description

Zac Poonen emphasizes the importance of seeking God's will by asking twelve crucial questions when faced with uncertainty. These questions revolve around aligning our actions with the teachings of Jesus and the New Testament, ensuring our conscience is clear, seeking to bring glory to God, and considering the impact on our spiritual life and testimony. Poonen encourages believers to seek counsel from wiser individuals, evaluate the edifying nature of the action, and assess its potential to cause stumbling in others.

Transcript

When faced with an issue concerning which we are unsure as to whether it is God's will or not, it is good for us to ask ourselves twelve questions. As we answer these questions honestly, it will become increasingly clear to us what the will of God is.

Is it contrary to any of the teachings of Jesus and the apostles, or to the spirit of the New Testament, as far as I know? (2 Timothy 3:16, 17)

Is it something I can do with a clear conscience? (1 John 3:21)

Is it something I can do for the glory of God? (1 Corinthians 10:31)

Is it something I can do in fellowship with Jesus? (Colossians 3:17)

Can I ask God to bless me as I do it? (2 Corinthians 9:8)

Will my doing it blunt my spiritual edge in any way? (2 Timothy 2:15)

Will it be spiritually profitable and edifying, to the best of my knowledge? (1 Corinthians 6:12; 10:23)

Would I be happy if I were found doing it at the moment when Jesus returns to earth? (1 John 2:28)

What do wiser and more mature brothers think about it? (Proverbs 11:14; 15:22; 24:6)

Will my doing it bring dishonour to God's Name or ruin my testimony, if others know about it? (Romans 2:24; 2 Corinthians 8:21)

Will my doing it cause others to stumble, if they know about it? (Romans 14:13; 1 Corinthians 8:9).

Do I feel free in my spirit to do it? (1 John 2:27)

(Look up the Scripture references and meditate on them).
