

The Grace of God Empowers Us

by Zac Poonen

This sermon focuses on the concept of grace as God's power that strengthens us in our weaknesses, using the example of Paul's thorn in the flesh and God's response that His grace is sufficient. It emphasizes that grace is not just about forgiveness but about God's empowering presence in our lives, especially in times of weakness.

Scripture: 2 Corinthians 12:9, Romans 5:20, Ephesians 2:8, Titus 2:11, Hebrews 4:16

Topics: "God's Grace", "Strength in Weakness"

Transcript

When Paul had a thorn in the flesh, the Lord said, My grace is sufficient for you. I want to show you two verses. 2 Corinthians 12.

What is grace? Many people think it is the freedom with which God forgives us. But listen to God's own definition. 2 Corinthians 12, verse 9. My grace is sufficient for you because that is my power.

Grace is God's power which will strengthen you in your weakness. Let me read it like that. My grace is sufficient for you because that is my power which will strengthen you when you are weak.
