The speaker highlights how this incomplete understanding can lead to backsliding and hinder Christians from experiencing the abundant life God desires for them. So what do you think these false prophets are saying? Is it possible that some false prophets are saying there is only a narrow gate that leads to life? And knocking off something else that Jesus said, there is a narrow way as well. And I believe that a reason for so many backslidden Christians, and the reason why so many Christians never seem to come to a happy, victorious life, the way God wants them to live, is because false prophets have told you, all you need to do is get in through the gate and you're okay. So I have to check the words of these prophets with what Jesus said, there is a gate and a way.
